DEFEAT THE ONE PARTY STATE IN BRITAIN

Now that the public has come to realise that they were sold a dud when they bought New Labour, there is a clamour for Tony and his cronies to be kicked out as soon as possible. This has obliged the Prime Minister makers to come up with a replacement sooner than they had expected.

Iain Duncan Smith was never cut out for the part of leader, but he felt that he had done what was expected of him. He has given his full support to Tony Blair over the illegal assault of Iraq. He has welcomed bogus asylum seekers and even played football with some of them. In the interest of party unity he has gone along with the homosexual lobby, and never mentioned the word "race" or given any indication that he wanted to take Britain out of Europe. Unable to keep the support of the patriotic British, the Tories turned to foreigners to keep them solvent. Never once has Iain Duncan Smith voiced fears over the return favours expected by their alien donors, and how it would affect Conservative Party policy.

"The quiet man" was clearly not one of the clandestine men of the dark who control British politics. Therefore, he would not be trusted as leader at the time that the New World Order was making its grab for world domination. Changes in party leadership would have to be made. It is surprising how quickly it all happened.

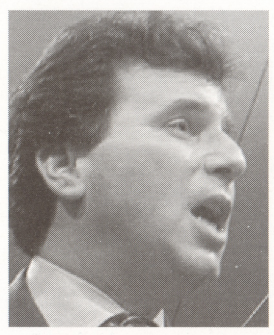
On October 28th last year Iain Duncan Smith publicly declared confidence in his position and few could see him being deposed for some time. However, the October 24th edition of the London Jewish News carried a headline "And Now a Kosher Tory Leader"? For the paper to be on the streets on the 24th, the article would probably have been written on the 21st October. What did the columnists at the London Jewish News know that the rest of us didn't?

We were led to believe that Michael Howard did not covet the position of leader. It had been David Davis who had made the challenge. Suddenly, Davis stepped aside and it seemingly fell to Michael Howard to take over as leader, he being a compromise choice to create unity in the party, or so the story goes. One may have forgotten that Michael Howard launched a serious bid for the leadership in 1997 and failed abysmally. He had wanted "to become the first Jewish leader of his party since Disraeli". (Jewish Chronicle May 9th 1997.) Since getting the job he has downplayed his Jewishness.

However, as soon as Michael Howard became leader his first act was to depose some Christian-Britons from their top positions and replace them with his own kind..

In came three Jews, Maurice Saatchi, John Bercow and Oliver Letwin.

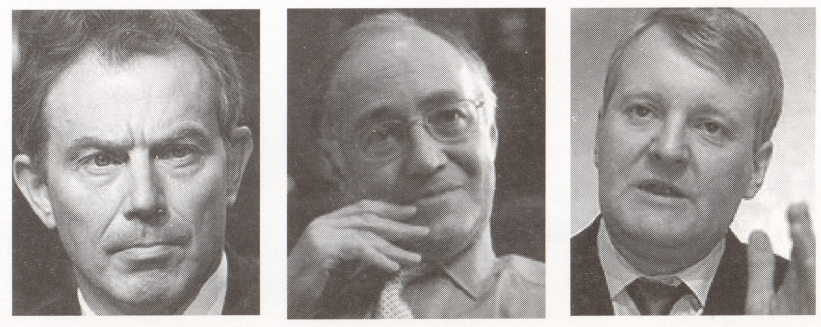
When the Saatchi company undertook to manage the Conservative election campaign for Margaret Thatcher, they said that they would only do so, provided their was no racist content in the programme. The Saatchi gallery in London exhibits the kind of material that annually wins the Turner Prize. We would have thought that both Saatchi brothers would fit more comfortably into the Communist Party.



For election purposes, Oliver Letwin has been described as right-wing, but expect no Enoch Powell style policies from this quarter, for he is a Rothschild man. Interestingly, there has been a discernible and damaging Rothschild influence in every government from and including that of Winston Churchill.

THE ONE PARTY STATE OF BRITAIN

NO DIFFERENCE - NO REAL VOTER CHOICE



ALL 3 OLD GANG PARTIES ARE COMMITTED TO FORCING MULTICULTURALISM ONTO US WHILE TAKING BRITAIN INTO THE EUROPEAN SUPER STATE WITH LOSS OF OUR IDENTITY SELF-GOVERNANCE AND SOVEREIGNTY.

The Daily Mail built up Michael Howard, in the same way that the Sun newspaper earlier fabricated a super image for Tony Blair. The Mail headline on October 30th "CORONATION OF KING HOWARD Shock! Horror!

Tories Show Loyalty and Discipline as they Unite Behind a New Leader." This was pure propaganda. It was too soon to know. At that point in time the opinion polls showed that Conservative support had dropped and that many party members were angry that their chosen leader had been replaced by a relatively small number of MPs without any proper consultation.

Michael Howard - or Hecht to give him his correct name - is the son of a Romanian Jew who felt the need to flee from Romania when the day of reckoning came.

The new Conservative leader would like to give the impression that he has become an English patriotic gent, but don't be fooled - he is as anti-British as those currently running New Labour, as his recent verbal attack on fellow British Nationalists in Burnley calling us, "A stain on British democracy" testifies.

Like many currently wrecking our country, Michael Howard is both an ex-university graduate and a barrister. The Dowager Lady Birdwood related how Howard had sat with members of the Board of Jewish Deputies in a meeting they had with her, where they tried to frighten her into giving up her fight to save the British nation.

There is further evidence of Howard's unsuitability to be leader of our nation, in that he resigned from the Conservative Association over an invitation given to Sir Oswald Mosely. One may or may not have agreed with Mosely's views, but only communists and arrogant, left-wing-Jewish supremacists, intent on suppressing dissent, would normally react in such an uncalled-for way. We believe that the Conservatives under their present leadership are about as right-wing as Karl Marx - and of the same racial origin.

Michael Howard, has made it clear that there will be no significant changes to party policy. We can therefore assume, that the Conservative Party will remain engaged in the same kind of anti-British activity that they have used to try to destroy our race and nation since 1945.

With the British in deadly peril, fighting for their freedom and very existence, we cannot afford to let the Conservatives trick their way back into power yet again, by using newly-found, phoney patriotism.

It is now time to vote for "real" patriotic British political parties, like ourselves in any election in 2004 and start the ball rolling democratically to remove the real stains off the British landscape for good.

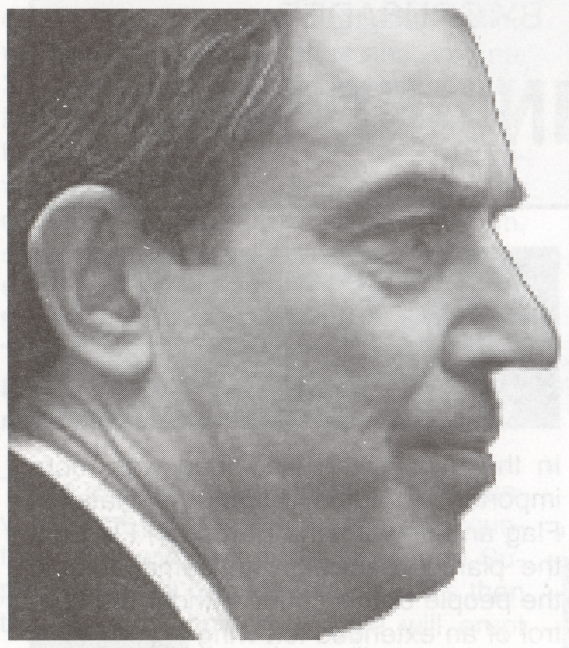
BRITAIN FIRST

DEFEAT THE ONE PARTY STATE IN BRITAIN

MOST PEOPLE BELIEVE THAT TONY BLAIR LIED TO GET US TO WAR



For Tony Blair it is clear that the facts relating to Saddam Hussein's possession of "weapons of mass destruction" or his ability to deploy them within 45 minutes were neither here nor there.

The Labour leader was instructed by those who connived to install him in office, to assist George Bush in his venture to attack Iraq and remove Saddam Hussein.

The opposition colluded with the government in its purpose of sending troops to Iraq, despite clear dissent by the majority of the public and many journalists. Clearly the motives behind a military occupation of Iraq had more to do with oil, political control and profit (rebuilding is just one lucrative venture) than it had with Saddam Hussein's treatment of his people.

A similar collaboration by the major parties has been in place over many important issues, including our entry into the EU, mass immigration, GM crops, fluoridation of the water supply, drug legislation, capital punishment, comprehensive education and high-level public surveillance.

The Prime Minister obtained his position through the influence of what can only be described as a behind-the-scenes, secret government. This unlawful body is comprised of shadowy, powerful individuals and secretive organisations using half-wits like Tony Blair, Edward Heath, John Major and Harold Wilson to implement a programme of world domination for them. Having allowed themselves to become puppets of a political mafia, the likes of Tony Blair are hardly likely to refuse to carry out orders.

To blinker the vision of senior politicians there exists a very large carrot and a very large stick.

When a general election and a change of government takes place, there is no deviation from the programme of national destruction that has been pursued by those we have been eager to get rid of. Time after time at general elections, replacing the party in office has been a case of changing the oil-rag and not the driver. If we replace the Socialists with either the Conservatives or the Liberals there will be no variation in the politics. It will simply be a case of a different set of faces carrying out the same orders. The old parties have been bought and paid for. There is never going to be a chance of them representing us. Michael Howard is trying to achieve a political advantage by calling for Blair's resignation over committing our troops to war. The Conservative Party hierarchy was solidly behind Tony Blair's unlawful attack on a sovereign state. A sham exchange of words was used to help sustain an illusion of choice, created to deceive the voting public.

We won't be fooled any more, however, will we?

£1 BILLION SPENT ON NATIONAL DESTRUCTION

We need to ask the question, why are there so many politically-correct twerps who take delight in destroying our race, nation and culture, while putting every foreigner's needs before our own?

Our enemies have recognised the fact that those who will take up jobs which have power and influence will pass through university.

Professional marxist propagandists have for decades been allowed to work in colleges and universities where they have brainwashed young innocent and naive minds with the desirability of socialist revolution.

Indoctrinated students fool themselves into believing that they are cleverer than anyone else, for after all they can see that "the Emperor is wearing fine clothes".

Once ex-students have become gullible dupes of the internationalists, they are given jobs where they can help dictate political policy. Moving within their own cloistered circles, they reinforce each other's insanity.

New Labour has spent £1 billion of our money employing some of their left-wing crackpot cronies as advisers. This has been to give back-up to Labour's policies of national destruction.

Tony Blair's vision of sending three quarters of adolescents to university is not because it would be best for the students.

It is because it offers an opportunity to brainwash a larger percentage of the population.

SOCIALISM MAKES LIFE INTOLERABLE FOR SOCIALISTS TOO

Tony Booth, the left-wing actor and father-in-law of Tony Blair, is leaving Britain, claiming that the government has "contempt" for pensioners and shows them no respect.

He added that New Labour's attitude seems to be "Why don't you do us all a favour and snuff it? "

Mr Booth, who has now seen the light and is off to Ireland, did much over the years to assist in the downfall of our once-great country. He enthusiastically played the part of the left-wing "scouse git" in Till Death us do part. This series was designed to portray as mindless bigots any who thought like the National Front or Enoch Powell. Mr Booth also helped his son-in-law get to the position he is in today.

Those currently wrecking our country cannot wait to get rid of the over 60'-s because they have left school and had experience of life before the arrival of the brain-washing "swinging sixties". This was the time when communists took over the education system, lowered standards and set about turning pupils against their own race and nation. There is a distinct difference in the average level of self-restraint, initiative, national loyalty and personal responsibility between the generations brought up in the traditional manner and those who have come after.

Ask anyone over the age of 60 what he thinks of Nelson Mandela and he is likely to say that Mandela was a leader of the ANC terrorist group, who was helped into power by anti-white, international organisations, and that once he took charge of South Africa it went from being a prosperous, civilised country to one that was violent, less productive and well on its way to joining the rest of the third world.

Ask a younger person who went through the education system since it became a series of Marxist training camps and he will likely say that Nelson Mandela was one of the greatest men of all time.

It is unfortunate that most teachers have traditionally come from the comfortably-off middle classes. This situation has allowed trendy, revolutionary marxists to move in and take over the teaching profession without any opposition. If more working-class people, who are generally virulently anti-Communist, had become teachers rather than electricians or plumbers, maybe we could have maintained standards in the schools.

For too long we have allowed Communists and Socialists to make important decisions on our behalf and lead our youngsters astray.

WHO WAS ROSS PARKER?

Both parents of Stephen Lawrence were awarded an OBE by New Labour, for what was described as "helping community relations". This was part of an attack on the British to instil an unjustifiable guilt complex, in the hope that we would be worn down to the point where we will surrender our country and commit racial suicide.

We will not let this happen. No one has been convicted of killing Stephen Lawrence, the motive is not known and it is possible that his attacker may have been black, brown or yellow.

However, Socialists never allow truth or justice to get in the way of a chance to kick the white man.

Ross Parker (above) was murdered in a vicious racist attack in Peterborough by a group of white-hating Asians. They shouted, "Cherish the blood" as they wielded the knife they killed him with.

A recent National Front flower laying ceremony and vigil, as part of our "National Campaign of Remembrance" for all white Britons killed by the hands of immigrants was banned by the local constabulary.

Strange how we never know much about what should be of concern to us, yet know everything about that which relates to others.

Try this test. How many British servicemen and civilians died in the second world war?

How many Jews died in the Second World War?

Makes you think doesn't it.

THE CONSPIRACY - BY CRUSADER

A PLOT TO DESTROY GREAT BRITAIN AND WHY

INTRODUCTION

When one looks at the Britain of yesteryear and the mess that is passed off as Britain today, one wonders what on earth has happened to values, both in the family and society in general.

Everything that British people once held dear, is crumbling like dry rot. The country is decaying before our eyes. To understand what is happening and why, one has to look back to how things were.

PART 1 - HOW THINGS WERE

In the 30's, prior to the Second World War, times were very hard for the working family, many had lost their menfolk in the slaughter of Flanders and some were on the bread line.

Many of Britain's finest fell in WWI

Yet despite poverty in many areas, there was a burning pride of being BRITISH and of belonging to GREAT BRITAIN. The few who didn't, dare not raise their heads above the parapet when loyalty to the King and Country was being toasted or displayed by the people. My Father (volunteered in WW1, was invalided out after the Somme) was considered, in those days, as politically left wing, yet would walk miles to cheer passing Royalty and was so proud to be British. Forget today's propaganda that the poor always hated the royal family.

The back-to-back streets were the first to hold street parties to commemorate anything Royal because they represented Great Britain and the Empire. Union Flags appeared everywhere, no excuse was needed to wave them and the Police nodded in approval because most Indians and Pakistanis lived in their own respective countries so there was no chance of 'offending' them.

There was plenty of poverty, but anyone ill or needing help would leave their door open so neighbours could come in to clean and bring soup. Nobody would steal from a neighbour and each would look out for the other.

Children would march around the school playground waving the Union Jack on Empire Day and sing patriotic songs. If you couldn't afford a flag, the teachers helped you to make one out of paper or cloth with crayon. They even had an overlay school book which showed how each flag of the UK made up the Union flag, complete with it's history, can you imagine that happening today? Now they are taught to feel ashamed and very guilty about our past history.

St George's Day was celebrated and there were annual school pageants on British heritage, with a girl dressed as Britannia. All children took part even the tiny ones often dressed as Crusaders. (Get the link?) Bands would play Rule Britannia, Land of Hope and Glory etc. The crowds came in their hundreds. Everyone, regardless of political bias, was a British Nationalist at heart. They would sing, cheer and wave flags. Then there was a May Day (none political) with children dancing around a May Pole and a May Queen crowned.

Carnivals were for children to dress up and enjoy themselves with adults playing a supporting role, not as today, used as an excuse for thugs to run riot, or for prancing homosexuals to fondle each other while demanding Gay Rights. Now they are promoted as TV celebrities or voted into Parliament.

In those days, there was an unbelievable pride in one's country and its heroes, because children were taught to love their Country and respect the flag. They were also taught respect for their elders and, most importantly, self respect. We were a proud nation worth fighting for. That's why they still had men prepared to defend OUR COUNTRY in 1939 only 20 years after the hellish World War 1, because no one was going to take OUR LAND.

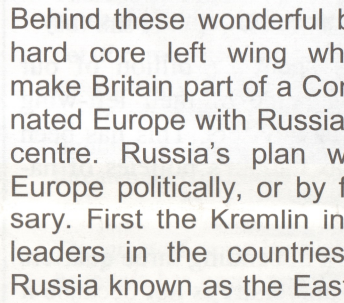
The old days have gone and, in case anyone thinks I am looking back wearing rose coloured spectacles, I'm not. Anybody who lived through it, will never mourn the passing of abject poverty and poor living conditions. But as the years moved on, so the soul of the nation slowly died, we lost that pride of belonging to the greatest nation in the world.

No, sorry, we didn't lose that pride, it was taken from us, by the very people who put themselves forward as the champions of the working class. After the war, a motley crew of Marxists, Communists and Socialists under the banner of Labour were voted into power because they promised to take the wealth of the country and redistribute it among the poor. Everything would be taken from the rich owners and handed to the people. To those who were poor it was to be a new El Dorado, too good to miss. A few Labour members may have wanted to help the poor but most wanted to help themselves to unlimited power, but power corrupts and absolute power, corrupts absolutely.

The die was cast.

The destruction of the nation had begun.

PART 2 - HOW THE ROT STARTED



Churchill's gesture to Hitler. Labour's to the British people?

In 1945 the first General Election after the war was held and in a radio broadcast on the 4th June that year, Winston Churchill opened the Campaign by saying "A labour government could not afford free expression of public opinion they would have to fall back on some form of Gestapo tactics to stop it". That is as true of New Labour today as in 1945.

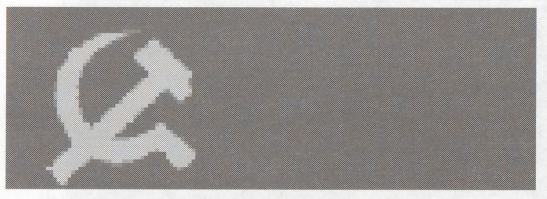
Marxists, Communists, and Socialists under the banner of Labour were voted into power. There is no doubt that many people did benefit from the change in regime and Bevin's, free NHS care 'from cradle to grave' was a master stroke. They gave the people what was desperately needed, free health care, spectacles and wigs and they were so grateful most didn't want to look into the recess of the controller's mind.

Behind these wonderful benefits was a hard core left wing who planned to make Britain part of a Communist dominated Europe with Russia as the control centre. Russia's plan was to control Europe politically, or by force if necessary. First the Kremlin installed puppet leaders in the countries occupied by Russia known as the Eastern Bloc. This was to be followed by occupation and political control of the West, objectors would be crushed.

The American presence in Europe with their military hardware was THE stumbling block to their grand scheme. They had to be removed. Painted signs, "Yanks Go Home", appeared all over Europe and especially in Britain. Organisations like CND sprang up financed by Russia and organised by the Communists to remove our nuclear defence, sucking in many gullible celebrities and, like now, the media worked overtime giving them publicity.

KGB agents worked tirelessly organising anti American feelings, the Communist covert international organisation after the war was ruthlessly efficient. If they could get the Americans to abandon Europe, they had won. Violent riots erupted in cities throughout Western Europe and against the American bases. In this country the worst were outside the American Embassy in London spearheaded by violent young activists some of whom are now in government as Labour M.P's. But leopards never change their spots.

Within the Labour Party there has always been the Communist element masquerading as socialists struggling to take control, even Jack Straw (right) is, or was, a card carrying Communist according to the M.I.5 whistle blower, David Shaylor. Suspicions also fell on two Labour Leaders, Michael Foot and Harold Wilson, of actually working with, or for, the Kremlin.



In those days the Red Flag was more important to Labour than the National Flag and now it's the European Flag but the plan is basically the same, forcing the people of this country under the control of an extended left wing Europe only this time Russia is out of the equation, but the Communists aren't and neither are Jews.

WHAT PART DO JEWISH SUPREMACISTS PLAY? Every game in town!!!

This is how Jews are often portrayed.

Currently politically-active Jews are complaining about a world-wide rise in "anti-Semitism".

They blame everyone else for their predicament, yet refuse to lessen their desire to control every nation.

Their philosophy is simple and effective, money is power and power gives them control. They gain their wealth with a simple ploy 'A Jew will only buy from a Jew but will sell to anybody'. Money comes in, never goes out. Any political party will tell you, finance is always critical in politics and the people who pay the piper, call the tune. They use their wealth to manipulate rulers everywhere in the world, in any given situation, or to buy positions of power, like TV stations and newspapers, to control the masses. A government backed by the Jewish owned media can manipulate, change and direct peoples opinions, hopes and ideals. You can be brainwashed in your own living room, it's happening today, in our own country.

Civil war within the Labour party raged right up to the birth of New Labour. So, what has happened to the Communists, Marxists, Militant Tendency etc. once so vociferous? Why so quiet?

UNISON
the public service union

These people are now in bed with the New Labour elite. They operate within the Trade Union movement politically manipulating the workforce and pretend they are protecting the people from none existent bogey men, by using new grandiose titles like the Anti Nazi League, all with the sole purpose of silencing the truth.

With the demise of their powerful Russian base, tactics have changed but the dream of an all controlling left wing European Super State is still there. Why should a 'Common Market' formed to enhance trade suddenly need its own flag, parliament, army, oppressive laws, currency, financial control and President, with a President Blair in waiting?

Addressing Parliament on Monday 17 Dec. 2001, Tony Blair gave away his dream of this left wing conquest and I quote him, "Soon the European Union will consist of 25 countries and, in time, 35. The Union will stretch from the Atlantic to the Black Sea with responsibilities for 500 Million citizens. A new convention of MP's from the participating countries will arrange economic reform, security, defence, currency and will set up a framework to make sure it will function efficiently". He ended with the words "THE DAYS OF BRITISH ISOLATIONISM ARE OVER" (for ISOLATIONISM read FREEDOM).

There is little doubt that the "new convention of MP's from participating countries" that will control the European Super State, will be very left wing. It's then that the real power struggle will erupt again. The Communists will move in to dominate. A point not lost on Ex Tory leader, Ian Duncan Smith who asked "if the new convention is to have a balanced view of Europe, as it has been suggested, will you invite someone from this side of the house?" When the PM shook his head, Ian Duncan Smith said, "no, I thought not".

Whoever designed the election poster New Labour "The new Danger" with Blair's red eyes, was spot on. In my opinion he is a very dangerous power crazy man. Why John Major had that poster removed I will never know.

It was a dire warning of what was to come.

THE DESTRUCTION OF BRITAIN

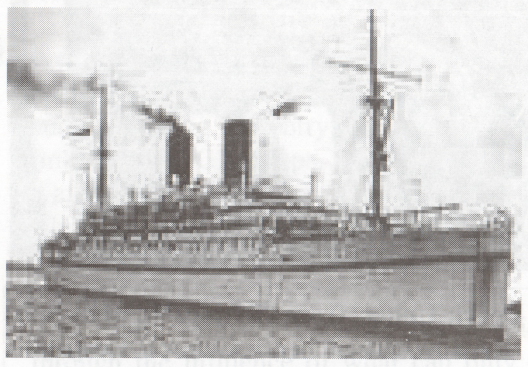
As Churchill said in 1945, "A Labour Government could not afford free-expression and would need a sort of Gestapo to rule". He could have been speaking today!!

Tony Blair is forcing this country, into the melting pot of a Socialist controlled Europe and everything the people can see happening and, at times, can hardly believe is happening, is all programmed to that end!

Bankers and Socialists cheekily imply that we have no alternative but to accept their plans for a kind of world-wide Soviet Union. There is nothing inevitable about a world Socialist state. Why should there be, when most people don't want it?

To make a once proud and great nation into a submissive totalitarian state you have to destroy its Pride, its History and the inherent love of country, so prevalent in the 1930's and still remaining today, as the upsurge in the National movement shows.

So how do you destroy a great people with independence and pride embedded in history?



Mass immigration started on the 22nd June 1948 when the Empire Windrush brought 500 immigrants from the West Indies. A constant stream from all over the world has arrived daily ever since.

First you dilute, and eventually drown, the patriotic indigenous population by opening the gates and flooding the country with foreign, often criminal, sometimes disease ridden alien people, with opposing cultures and religions, who have no loyalty to the crown, treat the country with contempt and the taxpayer as a meal ticket.

The new Commission of Racial Equality boss, Trevor Phillips

Then you give these Socialist-supporting, third-world aliens high status and pride of place in our society and special privileges in the host nation, deliberately ignoring the needs of the indigenous population. You then bring in draconian laws to protect the imported villains and oppress the hapless victims. Everything is programmed to elevate the ethnic cultures and destroy Britain's culture and heritage. Every white person's action is condemned as racist but every black person has the freedom to speak and act as they please, daring anyone to complain and face prison.

You silence all white objections by inventing special hate words. People who question government policy quietly are RACIST those who protest loudly, (like the National Front), are called NAZIS. Those who question the interference of European Bureaucrats in our traditions and laws are XENOPHOBIC those who wish to remain British are LITTLE ENGLANDERS and so the verbal violence goes on until everyone is silenced by fear of retribution. Even the Police have been rendered ineffectual against ethnic or black crime by the words INSTITUTIONALLY RACIST.

It's a deliberate act of rule by intimidation. The sneers at what you hold dear isolate you because constant government media propaganda makes sure that you are brainwashed into believing you are now in the minority.

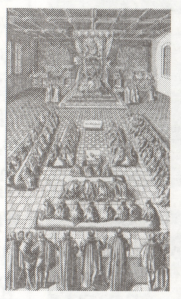
Having forced multiculturalism on us, silencing those who object with the threat of prison, it's important that children are not influenced by patriotic events or parents. They are taught that patriotism is a dirty word, all our heroes and historic events are rubbished and every effort is made to remove all vestiges of national identity. The Stars and Stripes flutters all over America but here flying the Union Flag is discouraged and other nationalistic events or symbols are either banned, or publicly ridiculed as jingoistic and racist. Ken Livingstone is not alone in his attack on St. George. Labour politicians fall over themselves to support St. Patrick's Day parades, but a St. George's day parade would be declared a fascist rally and violently attacked by government supported left wing thugs - anything to destroy pride in National identity.

You then have to break up traditions that have existed for hundreds of years like the House of Lords, inviting terrorists into Parliament without taking the Loyal Oath and demeaning the Royal Family, selling our gold reserves at knock down prices, dismantling the United Kingdom and sovereignty and breaking up centuries of protection by giving Europe the right to extradite British Citizens to face trial on charges that are not even an offence in this country.

Giving Policemen the power to smash down an O.A.P's front door and arrest him for putting a poster in his window objecting to Islamic terrorists and making sure the Police only charge white people for being racist. They are even persecuting white children in nursery schools for being racist. Babies don't know what racism is but this government wants to make an example of them anyway. Shades of Stalin.

New Labour has lied and cheated i.e. promising a referendum on accepting the Euro then making it legal tender alongside the pound. Millions of taxpayers' money is secretly spent preparing for the change over. They have refused a referendum on the formation of a European Super State. It will happen unless the people vote for the NF, the party to stop it.

New Labour is distorting the very fabric of society in so many ways. To me, one of the worst was making it legal for men to have sex with 16 year old schoolboys now followed by the 'Gay' movement's demand to make it 14 years. The despicable removal of Section 28 now means homosexuality will be taught to school children as a normal and acceptable way of family life and to prove the point, the government is going to allow same sex marriages.



The House of Lords tried to stop the breakdown of family life and what's happening to them? They are being destroyed; reasonable people are being replaced with Socialists, lap dog LibDems, homosexuals and ethnics.

Everything is geared to trashing our proud traditions and national pride because if you make it intolerable for the lionhearted then you have won. Those who are trapped in isolation become so dispirited that they believe the country is finished. Dead! It no longer exists. Once the feeling of "we might as well be in Europe" takes over, we are lost.

There is a quirk in history - had Britain accepted Hitler's peace proposal, after the defeat/tactical withdrawal at Dunkirk.

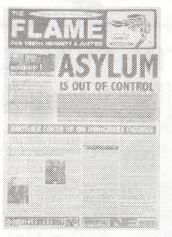
The evacuation from Dunkirk 1942

We could have had, what Blair wants, a centrally controlled, strong European State without the loss of British lives, cities and sovereignty. The only difference is, now it will be a fascist left wing Franco/German dominated Europe.

Why did people die to stop the one yet give in without a fight for the other?

CONCLUSION

If you accept that there is a determined effort to destroy the British Isles by fragmenting the country and the people, and you also accept that the grand plan is to make these fragments minor regions within a European State, then the unbelievable excesses forced on the indigenous population all make sense.



Many of the Patriots/ Nationalists who read the Flame probably know more than I what is happening today, but many ordinary citizens DON'T because of censorship.

The National Front would tell them everything, but the left wing thugs supported and protected by the New Labour Laws, will make sure that doesn't happen. Brave men and women stand up for freedom of speech only to be assaulted and called Nazis yet the thugs who attack them are the real Gestapo that Churchill warned us about.

We have a situation where the left wing have made it an offence to question their actions, supported by the Police who are too frightened to do their job properly.

The ethnics only have to shout RACIST for the macho Police person to collapse into a quivering jelly, babbling apologies for even suspecting them in the first place.

The Police have been bullied into being Blair's puppets with P.C. blinkers as standard issue.

It is wonderful that some young people are prepared to pick up the banner of Nationalism and fight for their heritage, their future and for their freedom. They are the TRUE citizens of GREAT BRITAIN. As for those who sell us out, they should be seen for what they are, TRAITORS. That's why it's so important that you use your vote wisely to stop the rot.

Don't allow our forefathers to have died in vain defending a country, which some politicians are prepared to break up and give away for a few pieces of silver.

It's your country and your flag, fly it with pride.

STATE MURDER IN OUR HOSPITALS SPEEDS UP GENOCIDE PROGRAMME

Since 1960 our hospitals have been steadily turned into killing machines. Superbugs are killing 100 patients a week in our multi-racial, socially-engineered hospitals.

At the same time that these disturbing figures were revealed the government was still urging the NHS to take on even more non-white staff, regardless of their ability to do the job satisfactorily. Some hospitals have become so infected with superbugs, that a considerable number of seriously ill patients, have opted to miss out on treatment and stay at home, rather than risk their lives in potentially lethal wards.

Many patients have had their condition made worse, and many have died due to inadequately trained staff and chaotic working practices. The NHS is clearly overstretched, yet it has become common practice to perform unnecessary operations on women. They then run the risk of cancer developing on these operation scars some years later.

There are, even in Harley Street, doctors who have been struck off still practising, yet the authorities show little concern for this unacceptable state of affairs.

A large number of people have seen their illnesses become life-threatening due to the excessive time they have waited to be dealt with. In desperation some NHS patients have flown to India, Romania, Belgium and South Africa for operations which have been carried out speedily and successfully. We would have a Health service of our own equal to those which are now being relied upon overseas, if the NHS had not been deliberately sabotaged.

Any suggestions put forward which would improve the situation, such as to put matrons back in charge of the wards, is greeted with derision by the government who continue with the programme which has caused life-threatening conditions in our hospitals.

Whistle-blowers such as Dr Rita Pal who brought to public attention the practice of cutting off treatment for elderly patients (mainly whites) who still have a chance of recovering, have been forced to resign. In 1983 fully qualified and experienced British nurses were told that they no longer had a job and that girls from the far East would be brought in to replace them.

At the same time, low pay in the NHS was causing many of our best doctors and surgeons to move to America where their skills were appreciated and properly rewarded.

Deryk Unger, from Glynneath, went into the now-closed Neath General Hospital to have minor cuts to his feet treated.

He twice contracted the hospital 'superbug', MRSA, and ultimately had to have both legs amputated below the knee.

Untrained and semi-trained foreigners who take up positions in the hospitals generally have lower standards of hygiene. Once the NHS fell into the hands of Trusts, profit became a major factor. Immediately, cost-cutting took place in such areas as cleaning. It has been deliberate government policy to create hospital teams who are inefficient and poorly trained, and who often cannot speak English. It is these people who pose a threat to patients. We have heard of numerous instances where doctors have by mistake given the wrong kind of drug or an overdose of it, which has caused serious secondary problems such as liver failure.

There is still much that is good about the NHS, but this is to the credit of the medical staff and not the management or the government. Certainly, many doctors and nurses work hard and for an exhausting number of hours, but they are fighting a losing battle against the life-threatening conditions which have been deliberately created by successive governments.

The greatest cause by far of health problems in hospitals has been people from the third world who enter our hospitals in large numbers either as workers, patients or visitors. TB and SARS are not the only diseases brought in by foreigners. We have had for example leprosy in Britain for some time. AIDS has been introduced from Africa, and we have a situation where parliament has given its approval for nurses with AIDS to work in hospitals and we are told that we have no right to know their identity. AIDS sufferers from the third world are being encouraged to come here where they pose not only a health threat but eat up precious resources. There are probably diseases being brought into Britain which we know little of and have no means to treat. Doctors are no longer trained to the same high standards and now often rely on computer back-up to to identify and treat illnesses. As most of the computer programmes have been influenced by the pharmaceutical companies simply administering drugs has become common practice. As a result, and due to them being prescribed far too often, antibiotics will soon be of little use.

What is happening to the whites in Britain is nothing short of ethnic cleansing. Liberals and Socialists are quick to condemn any form of racial genocide overseas, yet they enthusiastically participate in the ethnic cleansing of the British in our own land. Their brains seem so damaged by left-wing political correctness that they seem unwilling to recognise the problems they cause or admit to their hypocrisy.

This is not to say that even cabinet ministers are consciously trying to kill us off. Those chosen to run departments are not selected by us, their appointments have been made simply because they are trusted members of either the Labour or Conservative parties. This unsatisfactory state of affairs is brought about by a system in which electors generally vote for a party, knowing nothing of the person they have voted for. Those who think for themselves, have knowledge, experience and a commitment to act are never selected as parliamentary candidates by the main parties.

The candidates put forward by the Labour, Liberal and Conservative parties at general elections are mainly professional, shady, career politicians who care only for themselves and an even greater number of impractical, marxist-indoctrinated, no-hopers who have neither the knowledge nor the ability to do any job properly. A number of these incompetents are selected for ministerial appointment in the knowledge that their inability to do the job will leave them looking for advice.

Those who want to kill off the British are always on hand to make suggestions.

This can be done for example at dinner parties by setting out ideas, while assuming an authoritative and understanding demeanour, or through various means of subliminal mind-control. Even doing nothing, which many ministers are tempted to do, leaves the NHS, railways, education and immigration control in a downward spiral of rapid collapse.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Flame - PO Box 274,
Hemel Hempstead, Herts. HP3 9EQ

In issue 21 of Flame there was an article about Robert Relf who received a jail sentence for putting a board in his front garden bearing the words "FOR SALE TO ENGLISH ONLY". I thought that this was a serious infringement of his liberty as well as being a direct attack on every Englishman.

www.totallyjewish.com/property

www.totallyjewish.com/property

I spotted in a supplement to the London Jewish News an advertisement for a company of estate agents advertising houses, exclusively to the Jewish community.

The company brazenly went under the title "www.totallyjewish.com" property. I can understand the Jews needs for Kosher butchers although I oppose it on animal cruelty grounds in Britain, but I think keeping what appear to be the most desirable properties within their own community is scandalous, particularly considering that the Race Relations Acts have been a Jewish creation.

I was going to let this incident pass but a second similar event occurred which made my blood boil. A party of around fifty children from a local private school were walking along the high street with their teachers. Although our area does not have many immigrants around, one third of the children were African or Asian. The teachers had partnered every white girl with a coloured boy. I was so incensed that I rebuked one of the teachers for complying with orders given by communists.

A few days later coming from the opposite end of the Broadway I saw an equal number of children accompanied by their teachers. I was pleased to see that every child was white. Then I realised that they were from the Jewish school. Is it not time that we refused to recognise the Race Acts, for clearly those who introduced them have themselves no intention of obeying them. K..Roberts, North London

Dear Flame, just to let you know I found your site through a search engine and have since downloaded and read all your back issues and articles. I was so impressed and agreed with most things you say, I have subscribed to your newspaper, joined the National Front and sent off a small donation.
Barry Watts, Staffs.

May I congratulate you on the Marcus Garvey article in the last issue of the Flame. If he had been in Britain at that time he would have no doubt been nominated for the "Greatest Black Briton of all time" and heavily featured in Black History month. You should mass produce that article for distribution to the black population in Britain, if you can encourage a few modern-day Marcus Garvey's to come forward the National Front may not need a repatriation policy with the immigrants eager to go home to their ethnic roots, with a little financial assistance. Living in hope, Mrs. Proud, Stockton.

Dear Sir, I fully agree with your stop positive discrimination and the "Shut Down CRE" issue sticker. We will never have racial equality as long as we are being discriminated against by the exclusion of whites in any thing to do with equality. Trevor Phillips and his "Bogus" Commission for Racial Equality should be closed and let our police and others get on with providing decent public services for all without fear of harassment from the politically correct brigade. R. Smythe, Morpeth.

FIGHTING FOR THE LONG-TERM FUTURE OF BRITAIN

WHERE WE STAND ON THE IMPORTANT ISSUES

ASYLUM SEEKERS - Detain and screen all asylum seekers and illegal immigrants that enter Britain for thorough health and person checks. Preferably have our immigration control centres situated at the foreign ports so the failed cases will not enter Britain. Remove all failed asylum seekers and illegal immigrants from Britain immediately.

COUNCIL TAX - A Review of the whole system is now long overdue as major differences in rates occur from council to council. How can some of the highest charging and wasteful councils get away with offering some of the poorest services?

LAW AND ORDER - The very first duty of a government is to protect its citizens. In this respect successive labour and conservative governments would have to be adjudged as failures. We believe the only way to stop the spiralling out-of-control crime rates is introduce real punishments that fit the crime including reintroducing the death penalty for certain crimes. By equipping our Police to the highest possible standard and bringing back real community policing where the officers live in the communities they serve tackling real crime, not street wardens or other cost cutting schemes.

NHS - Provide an entirely free National Health Service including the abolition of prescription, dental and opticians charges. Prevent abuse of the NHS by health tourists and people from abroad who have contributed nothing or little into our Tax and NI system. Provide adequate funds to eliminate the ever-growing waiting lists. Ensure that private medical schemes and hospitals pick up the bill when their patients are transferred to NHS facilities.

EDUCATION - Our aim is to give control of schools and what is taught in them, after the standard core topics of reading, writing and arithmetic to local people, particularly the parents. Provide free school meals for all. End the University top up fees and make entry to university on merit and not the ability to pay.

EMPLOYMENT - We seek to give working people a say in the running of larger companies, rather than being treated merely as cogs in a machine run in some cases by absent owners.

UNIONS - Trade unions should be apolitical and only concern themselves with the rights, conditions and welfare of their members' and the protection of their jobs.

DISCRIMINATION - End positive discrimination as this discriminates against the excluded and in most cases this is the normal hard-working native Briton. How much did your council tax rise due to extra money on top of the normal amount per head being spent on non-deserving minority groups and fringe projects?

THE FAMILY - The family is the ideal social unit for rearing future generations. With falling native birth-rates more money needs to be made available to encourage people to have more children, while ensuring free crèche facilities for working parents. All families with children shall have priority to council housing with gardens.

THE ECONOMY - Restrict foreign imports so that goods and produce in our shops are made or grown in Britain by British workers. All equipment for our armed forces, police, fire service, NHS, schools etc shall be made in Britain.

DEFENCE - Only use British troops for the defence of British interests while retaining the regimental system and an independent nuclear deterrent. Our troops must be under the full control of the British government at all times.

THE EUROPEAN UNION - We will oppose any attempt to adopt the Euro and will seek a full withdrawal from the EU, keeping the British people in control of Britain.

IMMIGRATION - All non-white immigration into Britain must stop and a humane programme of repatriation commenced on a last in first out basis. All illegal immigrants will be removed from Britain.

THE ENVIRONMENT - Protect our existing green areas particularly in our cities. Rejuvenate agriculture and village life enabling us to grow more of our own foodstuffs with a ready-made workforce and stopping the exodus to the cities. Make maximum use of recycling, apart from protecting our natural resources it will cut down on imported new raw materials.

OUR HOPES AND GOALS

Despite how the media and our political opposition portray us, after reading about our policies we hope you will agree with the greater part and start the ball rolling for a better Britain for us all by supporting and voting for the National Front.
